

Keeping Baby Out of Doors

Plenty of air and sunshine are essential to your baby's growth and healthy development. In order that he may get the full benefit of his hours out of doors, you should buy him a Whitney Sleep-er like the one shown above.

This Carriage has an adjustable hood, roomy body, soft cushions, durable upholstery that will not soil easily, light flexible springs, and rubber-tired wheels that sit solidly on the axles. It rides easily and without jolts to baby, and the reversible gear enables it to be pushed from either end.

We are showing some very attractive new models in our spring stock and would like to give you a "demonstration."

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Abbott's display of silk dresses. Stout ladies' spring coats and suits. Sadler's Keith avenue.

The Ladies of Clan Gordon will hold a regular meeting Tuesday, March 5, at 7:15.

O. H. Hale left today for New York, where he is passing a few days on business.

Mrs. F. Cayia is detained at home from her work in the factory on account of sickness.

All the members of the band will meet in Howland hall to-night at 7:30 to organize for the carnival.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Campbell of Tremont street returned Saturday from Hyde Park, where they passed a week with relatives.

Ex-Congressman Frank Plumley, who addressed a temperance meeting in the opera house last evening, returned this morning to his home in Northfield.

Mr. and Mrs. William Simpson of 132 Washington street have returned from Rochester, Minn., where the former submitted to an operation performed by the Mayo brothers the latter part of December.

Mrs. Archie Allen of Ayer street returned Saturday evening from Montreal, where she has been visiting her husband, who is a member of a Canadian regiment stationed there, during the past few days.

Mrs. George Mowatt and daughter, Miss Barbara Mowatt, who have been visiting friends in Barre, their former home, returned Saturday evening to Claremont, N. H., where Mr. Mowatt is employed.

Lewis K. Hoar and Clarence R. Bishop, who arrived in the city Friday from Greenfield, Mass., left Saturday evening for Albany, N. Y., whence they expected to proceed to Charleston, S. C., where they will be assigned to duty in the aviation section of the U. S. navy.

W. H. Rock of Farwell street, who returned Sunday morning from a trip to New York, where he purchased several horses for the local market, went to Essex Junction this morning to meet the heavy haulers, which were shipped from the metropolis Saturday afternoon.

In deference to promoters of the Red Cross bazaar to be staged in Howland hall Wednesday and Thursday, the Barre Woman's club will hold its regular meeting in the Victoria club rooms Tuesday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock, as the usual meeting place is given over to preparations for the carnival.

The body of Joseph Cella, at the time of his death while on a visit in Milford, N. H., Friday, the oldest member of the Italian colony in Barre, arrived in the city Sunday morning at 5 o'clock, accompanied by his son, Angelo M. Cella, who went to Milford Friday. Funeral services were held at his home, 24 Vine street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the body was placed in the receiving vault at Elmwood.

Attention, Congregational Philatheas! On account of the church meeting called for to-morrow evening, the meeting of the Philatheas class, which would have been held then, will be held this (Monday) evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Robins, 35 Orange street. It is hoped there will be a large attendance and each member of the class reading this is asked to spread the notice, as this is the only opportunity there is to make it known and some might overlook it.

George F. Mackay of Wellington street, who recently completed his duties in the office of the National Life insurance company at Montpelier to return left today for Waco, Tex., where he expects to serve as a clerk in the aviation corps. Mr. Mackay, who has been active in musical circles here, sang a solo at the morning service in the Congregational church Sunday. He was accompanied to Texas by W. E. Laupheimer of Montpelier, another National Life employee, who is to drive a truck in the same corps.

Salvationists of the local Army corps were back in their old barracks Sunday for the first time since fire all but demolished their citadel in mid-December. Carpenters and artisans have thoroughly renovated the temple of the Salvation Army, and the interior is brighter and more attractive than ever before. Ensign Daisy Whipple had charge of the Sunday evening devotionals, and she was assisted by Lieut. Colborne of the Montpelier Army corps. The dedication of the infant son of Ensign and Mrs. Crawford came at the same service, and a very enjoyable solo by Mrs. Frank H. Tracy of Montpelier was another feature of the evening worship.

Accompanied by the deceased's mother, Mrs. Sarah Ross, and his brother, Alex Ross, of Quincy, Mass., the body of John S. Ross, a former resident of Barre, whose death in a Lynn, Mass. hospital Feb. 26 followed an illness of bronchitis and pneumonia, arrived in the city over the Central Vermont railroad Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock a number of the young man's friends and acquaintances gathered in the mortuary chapel of A. W. Badger & Co. for services, which were in charge of Rev. Edgar Crossland, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The body was placed in the receiving vault at Elmwood and interment will be made at Hope cemetery in the spring.

Friday evening at the Spaulding gymnasium, the Spaulding basketball team will play the last home game of the state interscholastic league. The Morrisville team defeated the local aggregation at that place a few weeks ago and proved to be a stumbling block in Burlington's path. The league race last Friday by defeating them by a close score, so the Spaulding team will be forced to the limit in order to hold their place in the league standing. The Spaulding senior girls are going to do their "bit" Friday evening at the chapel before the game by giving a minstrel show for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. fund. The show will be given under the direction of Miss Wallace, the supervisor of music in the city schools, while, after the game, a dance will be held by the class, the proceeds of which are also to be devoted to that work.

Tickets are being circulated throughout Washington county for the St. Patrick's day entertainment and supper complimentary to Mrs. Mary F. McWhorter, national president of the L. A. A. O. H. to be held in Howland hall on Monday, March 18. Joint committees representing the Ancient Order of Hibernians and ladies' auxiliary have been meeting to arrange a program of entertainment and a menu for supper that will be tempting to the palate and at the same time time meet the requirements of the food comers, and the result will be an excellent supper, a fine musical program and a most entertaining and instructive address by Mrs. McWhorter, who is considered by many to be one of the foremost woman speakers on the American platform.

Latest Tailored Models With Unusual Appeal

Fashion says: "Appear slender, dress simply and save cloth. This has been attempted by many makers of suits and coats.

You know the result—it is harder this season than ever to dress as fashion says and yet express your individuality.

Now the Wooltex and Printz-Beiderman tailors have avoided everything that is commonplace—their genius has created dozens of distinctive, slender models, each different in detail and different in the way the figure is revealed.

Our Usual Showing of Dress Goods

We are now ready to show you one of the largest and best lines of Wash Goods we have ever had so early in the season. One reason for this is that we bought early so as to be able to protect the trade on prices.

The new Cotton Satines are one of the season's popular cloths. These are a medium-weight cloth for Spring and early Summer wear. These have a silk finish, are good width and sell at 39c per yard.

Our line of Plain, Colored Voiles is more popular than ever. The colors are good and they are of a weight and finish that will make up as good looking as silk. These are 40 inches wide and the price only 29c per yard.

Early Showing of Coats

Our unusually large showing of the new Spring Coat models is very attractive. Note the skillful combining of lines and details to bring out the slenderness of figure.

The many new and original effects which are added to give the straight, slender lines, the many different panel back effects are very attractive. Nearly everything has an attractive belt effect of some sort.

These Coat models you will find are made up from an all-wool cloth of the season's popular materials. Serges will be more popular than ever.

This line of Coats you will find in the season's popular prices, and you will be surprised to know how little they are advanced in price over last season.

We have an unusually large display of the new and popular Foulards. These we are showing in the all cottons and the half cotton and half silk. This is a cloth that will be more popular than ever because of its style and wearing qualities.

See the display in our north show window of the Nu Vogue Plaids. This is a heavy Cotton Serge that comes in the popular season plaids. They are a cloth that has the appearance of an all-wool material, and will wear very nicely.

Here you will find an unusually large line of Satin Striped Voiles. These make up unusually attractive, and have a weight and finish that pleases all who want a good afternoon or party dress.

FULL LINE OF WASH SILKS

Our line of Tub Silks has attracted lots of attention in the last week. This is a line of Silks that will wash like a cotton and is unusually good for men's shirts. They are in good stripes. You will want some of these Silks for a good tub silk waist.

See our line of Gingham in our Bargain Basement. We are showing an unusually large line in the best qualities. We can show you a large line of colors.

We now have a good showing of the new Spring Millinery. This will surely be a popular season for ready made millinery. They are priced low and the style and quality is excellent. See our showing of misses' and young ladies' hats.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Our license friends are hard hit for arguments in support of license when they have to misrepresent the facts with regard to the Reed amendment. The Reed amendment applies only to prohibitionists—adv.

Check lists to be used in to-morrow's election were posted in the city hall this morning. They contain a total of 2,250 names, opposite a few of which is the word, oath, indicating that the voter, in most cases a woman, may exercise the franchise only after taking the freeman's oath at the polls.

Among the guests arriving at Hotel Barre through the week end were the following people: F. H. Lyford of Waterville, G. L. Morse of Milton, C. H. Woolson of New York, Clarence J. Ferguson of Burlington, Ivan Packard of Detroit, Mich., P. K. Nott of Troy, N. Y., Frank Plumley of Northfield, William O. O'Brien of New York, R. A. Field of Fitchburg, Mass., and F. N. Leithard of the United States navy.

War-time problems with all their seriousness are becoming mere play in the eyes of youngsters residing in the south end of the city during the past week. Saturday afternoon youngsters in that vicinity were engaged in a deadly combat of missiles (made mostly of snowballs), which would rival that of the battle of the Marne, while the realization of the affair was made more true because of the presence of one of the youngsters, arrayed with some likeness to the German ruler, and in accordance with the views of the youngsters this monarch was in charge of what proved to be the losing army, while their opponents proceeded to treat him in a manner which Sammies in France hope to do in the future.

The monthly meeting of the Barre Woman's club will be held in the Victoria club rooms Tuesday at 2:45 p. m. Members are asked to bring their knitting and some current event for a social hour.

Rev. John Irons, pastor of the Williamstown Congregational church, will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the Men's club in the vestry of the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening. His topic, as announced in the club circular, is to be "My Experience in the African Congo."

G. G. McSwain, known among many woodsmen as "George, the Penman," because of his dexterity with the spencerian, was locked up on an intoxication charge Saturday night. McSwain has been working in Cambridge and is alleged by the police to have spent several days on the bender in his old haunts. When arraigned before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this forenoon the respondent acknowledged a fourth offense and chose the alternative jail sentence.

To-night the present municipal administration holds its last council meeting, the session being the last before to-morrow's election. Although in any event the complexion of the 1918 administration will be changed but slightly, there is bound to be a new alderman from the fourth ward. The question of whether Mayor Glysson is to be retained at the head of the table or supplemented by Alderman C. H. Reynolds remains to be determined by the voters.

Music A War-Time Necessity

Imagine, if you can, a nation going in to war without the thrill of music.

Imagine, if you can, a nation battling through the dark days of a prolonged struggle without the heartening comfort of music.

The Victrola is literally the nation's chief source of music. More Americans—and Americans in the making—have learned "The Star Spangled Banner" from the Victrola than from any other one source.

Victrola

The Victrola is in millions of homes, it is in camp, on shipboard, in the trenches, the hospitals, the schools, and the churches. It is one of the greatest, if not the greatest means of diversion.

Let Us Put a Victrola in Your Home

You'll hardly miss the outlay in convenient payments, but you are missing the influence of the world's best music every day you are without a Victrola.
